By law we can only accept a contribution from an individual who is either a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident. Every Canadian citizen or permanent resident can donate up to $1,100 to each political party every year and an additional $1,100 to each party's campaign or association. No donations are permitted from businesses or corporations. Thus your contribution must be made only with your own personal credit card or from your personal bank account, and not from a business credit card or account.

As a member, you must abide by the constitution and principles of the Green Party of Canada, and not be a member of another federal political party.
